Dionigi Mattia Gagliardi (1986)

Artist, editor and journalist. Art director of Numero Cromatico - Research center on the relationship between art and science, editor in chief of Nodes journal (ISSN 2281-1168), member of the scientific committee of Rivista di Psicologia dell'Arte (ISSN 0393-9898) and collaborator of Centro Studi Jartrakor. Professor at Accademia di Belle Arti di Roma and Accademia di Belle Arti di Viterbo. His studies concern Psychology of art and Neuroaesthetics. He conducts studies on creativity and aleatory phenomena. He has written numerous papers and participated as a speaker at conferences on contemporary art and aesthetics.

Dionigi Mattia Gagliardi's solo show Dionigi Mattia Gagliardi. Recent Works on Paper opens in Numero Cromatico with a selection of artworks from the series Test Verbovisivi.

The project delves on two topics: the first is the visual relationship between words that are usually used in the art world and their translation into images; the second is the creation of paintings with formal and creative contents coming from the public.

The research conducted in these years has seen the participation of more than 100 people and many institutions such as the Accademia di Belle Arti di Roma, Sapienza Università di Roma and Università degli Studi della Calabria.
